

Lord all things are in your hands, So Lord I pray for my dear brother and his family Lord, send your Holy Spirit to guide their path in Your righteousness. I lift them up before you, asking you Lord to strengthen their families, asking for your perfect peace, that your perfect will be done in every aspect of their lives. We serve a God that binds us together through His love, mercy and grace, therefore we come boldly to the throne of grace with this prayer knowing you Lord have already answered my petition forgive us of our sins. In the name of Jesus Amen. Psalm 91:9-12

We are praying for you and your family. Our God is never too busy, and no prayer goes unanswered. We are asking God to place his arms of mercy around you and your family. Lord, you know every situation, you know the needs of his family, so Lord we lift this very family, before you our Lord, asking for mercy, strength, guidance, and protection of them. Bless them according to your will. Lord we for a special blessing on my dear brother, draw him closer, speak to him through your Holy Spirit, filled him with love and forgiveness in Jesus' Name, Amen. John 14:1 , Jeremiah 17:7
